

At KTNV-Channel 13 Action News we are committed to making Las Vegas a better place for locals and their families. We strive to solve the everyday problems that can make life in Las Vegas frustrating.

Action News tackles problems that government and big business ignore. We ask the tough questions and hold those in authority accountable.

Attached are the community based stories covered by KTNV-Channel 13 for 1Q12 reflecting (5) significant issues that Southern Nevadans are affected by the most; Health and Welfare, Economic Development, Politics, Education and Public Safety.

Our community involvement extended far beyond covering these issues in our newscasts this 1Q12. Along with covering these stories that matter to the Southern Nevada community, Journal Broadcast Group's On-Air Talent and Behind-the-Scenes staff addressed our community's needs by participating in local events that were areas of concern for them.

KTNV-Channel 13 an affiliate of the ABC Network, together working toward A Better Community.

Misery at the welfare office near Rancho and Washington..."There's people waiting here since 6:30 this morning." A long line outside.. some finding *no* help inside. "People are hungry and starving and have health issues and money issues and they don't have enough employees and everybody's is just in a big funk." Ronda Zager is among hundreds.. perhaps.. thousands of Nevadans whose food stamps have been temporarily cut off. We got e-mails at Action News asking us to find out why. "?What's your situation right now?" "Well, basically for me, I have a child. She's a teenager. I'm type one diabetic. I depend on the food stamps to get food and eat." And Ronda says.. she depended on a letter she didn't get. "?We were told by the state that folks are aware their benefits are going to run out after 6 months?" "No. That's not true." Action News discovered.. that *is* true.. but a spokesman for the Nevada Division of Welfare and Support Services admits.. the state messed up. Courtesy notices are usually sent *reminding* people to reapply for food stamps. But they weren't mailed in November due to a computer glitch. Ronda didn't get hers until December 19th. for the December 31st deadline. "I can't stand here for hours in a hot parking lot, and I'm hungry and I get diabetic seizures. It's sad, and I'm just gonna cry."

A PUBLIC HEALTH NOTICE HAS been ISSUED TODAY AFTER THREE REPORTED CASES OF LEGIONARRES DISEASE were TRACED BACK TO THE LUXOR RESORT AND CASINO. TWO CASES WERE REPORTED IN SPRING OF LAST YEAR.. THOSE VICTIMS RECOVERED. THE THIRD CASE WAS FATAL, AND JUST REPORTED THIS MONTH. MGM RESORTS WAS NOTIFIED LAST WEEK OF THE DEATH.SOT: "Obviously our hearts go out to the guest who passed away and to their family. uh it's never good news to receive a notification like this." THE legionella BACTeRIA IS NATURALLY OCCURRING IN WATER. it can grow and multiply on piping. RUSHING WATER CAN THEN TRANSMIT the bacteria IT INTO THE AIR... if breathed into the lungs it can cause a type of pneumonia known as legionaires disease.... NAMED AFTER A DEADLY OUTBREAK AMONGST MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN LEGION BACK IN THE MID SEVENTIES "What we typically see in Las Vegas is it's in the hotel rooms, often faucets and showers... they'll sit unused for a certain amount of time you turn it on it kicks this stuff up into the air. 5 TO 30 PERCENT OF REPORTED CASES ARE DEADLY.... most cases can be treated with antibiotics. What do you say to a traveler that plans to stay at your hotel ad sees this news? I would say that our company and our hotels have some of the most steadfast vigilant water management systems anywhere in the industry and that they should come in and that they should have confidence that we're looking out for their health and for their safety." AND THEY ARE, BOTH THE HEALTH DISTRICT AND MGM SAY THEY'RE WORKING HAND IN HAND TO MAKE SURE ALL WATER SYSTEMS ARE SAFE AT THE HOTEL. THE HEALTH DEPARTMENT SAYS THERE'S NO PREVENTATIVE MEASURE FOR THE GENERAL PUBLIC TO TAKE... THIS BACTERIA CAN BE A PROBLEM IN ALL LARGE BUILDINGS AND HOTELS....SO IT'S A MATTER OF WATER TREATMENT AND MONITORING BACTERIA LEVELS. JESSICA JANNER CH. 13 ACTION NEWS.

No one in their right mind would believe that a principal was recording all those individuals.

EMPLOYEES AT THE ACADEMY FOR INDIVIDUALIZED STUDY HIGH SCHOOL SAY THEIR PRINCIPAL AND OTHERS IN SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION WERE WATCHING AND LISTENING TO EVERYTHING THEY DID AND SAID AT THE SPECIALIZED ALTERNATIVE EDUCATION SCHOOL. EMPLOYEES BELIEVED... 2:46 Elena: It was basically to spy on them. AND NOT JUST THEM. ACCORDING TO ELENA RODRIGUEZ WHO SERVED AS ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL AT AIS IN THE 2010/2011 SCHOOL YEAR, STUDENTS AND PARENTS WERE ALL SUBJECT TO THOSE WATCHFUL EYES IN THE SKY WHEN AIS WAS AT THE OLD BISHOP GORMAN CAMPUS ON MARYLAND PARKWAY. ANITA WILBUR IS AIS' PRINCIPAL. 4:24 Elena: I counted about 25 cameras. She put two cameras per room--registrar's, counselor's office, we already had the five in the main office. She also put them in the special ed classroom, the computer lab...6:07 Darcy stand-up: These are the cameras in question. We found 23 of them in this box alone. And employees tell us that at least one of them was hidden inside a plant in the principal's office. PRINCIPAL WILBUR REFUSED TO TALK TO US. AMANDA FULKERSON IS A DISTRICT SPOKESPERSON. 7:00 Darcy: Why did she need a hidden camera in the plant in her office? Amanda: Um, that camera was pointed at the door of her office, it's absolutely there. Darcy: Why hide it in a plant? Amanda: That's a good question. That's not one that I can answer. According to her it wasn't hidden, per se, in that everyone knew that it was there. :19 Tonia Rayford/parent: We was in there a lot of times in the principal's office and I didn't know she had cameras in there. TONIA RAYFORD'S DAUGHTER WAS AN AIS STUDENT LAST YEAR. SHE ACKNOWLEDGES SEEING THESE ORANGE SIGNS POSTED AT THE SCHOOL SAYING IT WAS UNDER VIDEO SURVEILLANCE. 4:11 Darcy: When you saw that sign, what did you think it meant?

Tonia: I mean like surveillance around the campus, you know, outside, parking lot, stuff like that. But not in her personal office or in the registration office. 21:51 Darcy: If audio's being used, should it say that on the sign? Amanda: That's something we'll look into. FULKERSON SAYS ALL SCHOOLS USE CAMERAS FOR SECURITY PURPOSES TO PROTECT STUDENTS, STAFF AND THE PARENTS THAT COME IN. 1:14 Amanda: And we say that anytime you come onto a taxpayer-funded property, especially an alternative school, the expectation should be pretty low of privacy. THESE PICTURES SHOW SOME OF THE CAMERAS THAT WERE MOUNTED IN CLASSROOMS... SOME OF WHICH WERE USED BY GUIDANCE COUNSELORS. 6:05 Elena: Students that were pregnant, students that were raped, students that were being bullied, students that were on drugs--all this was being discussed with counselors, registrars, myself included and we weren't aware at that time we were being audio recorded. And neither did the parents. ELENA SAYS EMPLOYEES FOUND OUT THEY WERE BEING AUDIO RECORDED AT A MARCH STAFF MEETING WHEN THEY CONFRONTED THE SCHOOL'S TECHNICAL STAFF. 6:39 Elena: As a matter of fact, they were laughing about the fact that they could hear some people sing, some people hum, and they could hear all conversations. Two of the counselors asked directly, "then you can hear everything we're saying?" And the answer was, yes, we can. THIS EMPLOYEE WHO, LIKE ELENA, STILL WORKS FOR THE DISTRICT, ASKED US TO PROTECT HER IDENTITY. 37:37 Silhouette: We did have a high traffic office but we never had any reason really for security cameras. There was a lot of money being moved around but that was in the banker's office and there was no camera on her office. 17:37 Darcy: I don't think anybody would argue with wanting to be safe on campus. I don't think anybody would argue with having video surveillance at the entrance to a school. But I don't think you're going to be able to sell anybody on recording their conversations with a guidance counselor or a principal inside the privacy of that principal's office. Amanda: Well again, I think that these cameras were not used to any ill intention. CONTACT 13 HAS CONNECTED WITH EIGHT FORMER AIS EMPLOYEES WHO NOW WORK AT OTHER DISTRICT SCHOOLS. MANY WROTE TO ANITA WILBUR'S SUPERVISORS DESCRIBING A HOSTILE ENVIRONMENT WHERE EVERYONE WAS BEING SPIED ON BY A PRINCIPAL ON A POWER TRIP. COUNSELORS WERE ESPECIALLY CONCERNED. ONE WROTE, "cameras, with audio, inside of my office... is extremely disturbing to me as a professional school counselor due to the confidential issues which I discuss with my counselees." EMPLOYEES COMPLAINED ALL THE WAY UP THE CHAIN OF COMMAND TO SUPERINTENDENT DWIGHT JONES AND THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES. ELENA SAYS IT ALL FELL ON DEAF EARS. 13:26 Elena: It makes me believe that the word transparency doesn't have the same meaning for me that it does for the District and the word accountability doesn't have the same meaning. I mean, I had to actually go to channel 13 to get this information out. THE SCHOOL DISTRICT NOW PLANS TO RE-OPEN THE CASE AND INVESTIGATE. 22:30 Amanda: We're not gonna just sweep complaints under the rug. I'm not gonna discount what these people are saying. We'll absolutely go back and take a look at it. Darcy tag: AIS moved out of the old Bishop Gorman campus over the summer. They're now located inside the Vegas PBS building. When we asked if the principal and counselor's offices here are rigged with cameras, the District couldn't answer us because they don't know. And Anita Wilbur still refuses to return our multiple calls and emails. We will continue digging for answers. Darcy Spears, channel 13 action news.>>>

ONE OF OUR COMMUNITY'S OLDEST MEMBERS WAS SUPPOSED TO GET A SHOUT-OUT DURING THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH in las vegas YESTERDAY, BUT it didn't quite work out..100-YEAR-OLD WILBUR FAISS SAYS HE FOUND OUT TOO LATE AND ONCE HE GOT THERE, the event was already started, so HE WASN'T ALLOWED INSIDE. 7:31:12-17:31:27 You know, it's my fault. At 100 years of age, I just don't move as fast as I used to at 90. Laughs. You get the drift? THE PRESIDENT WAS SUPPOSED TO RECOGNIZE THE LAS VEGAS MAN FOR HIS LONG LIFE AND LENGTHY MARRIAGE TO HIS WIFE, THERESA. they have been married for 78 YEARS. FAISS OFFERS A LITTLE ADVICE, SAYING MARRIAGE IS THE SAME AS POLITICS. 17:35:12-17:35:23 Its give and take and compromise. Without these things, government doesn't work. Without these things, marriage doesn't work. TO MAKE UP FOR the MISUNDERSTANDING, FAISS SAYS HE'LL BE INVITED TO THE NEXT PRESIDENTIAL APPEARANCE IN LAS VEGAS.

NEWS SEGMENT:

STATISTICS FOR DECEMBER THAT SHOW 2009 WAS THE SECOND BEST YEAR EVER FOR SALES OF EXISTING HOMES HERE. PAUL BELL, THE PRESIDENT-ELECT FOR THE GREATER LAS VEGAS ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS IS HERE TO TELL US WHAT THIS MEANS TO OUR HOUSING MARKET. The Greater Las Vegas Association of REALTORS® (GLVAR) capped an eventful decade by releasing local housing statistics for the final month of 2009 showing that it was the second best year ever in Southern Nevada for sales of existing homes. GLVAR's most recent statistics also showed December generally followed 2009's trend of declining inventory and increasing sales. New GLVAR President and local REALTOR® Rick Shelton, who will lead the association during 2010, compared the past decade to a roller coaster ride. "Looking back, I think it's safe to say that this past decade was a challenging period for the local housing market, as well as for the Las Vegas economy," Shelton said. "I can't imagine this new decade being anything like the one we just experienced. For 2010, we're anticipating a more stable housing market." According to the GLVAR, the total number of local homes, condominiums and townhomes sold in December was 4,196. Shelton said that's up from 3,843 total housing sales in November, and up from 2,953 total sales in December 2008. Despite the continued challenges of dealing with foreclosures and short sales, Shelton said local home sales soared in 2009 as prices reached bargain levels. GLVAR reported 46,879 local housing sales in 2009. He said that's a huge spike from 28,618 total sales in 2008 and trails only the 71,963 homes sold during the record year of 2004. During December, GLVAR reported the median price of single-family homes sold in Southern Nevada was $136,000, down 2.9 percent from $140,000 in November and down 22.3 percent from $175,000 one year ago. The median price for condos and townhomes decreased 4.0 percent, from $68,000 in November to $65,300 in December. That's down 27.4 percent from $89,900 one year ago. Shelton said the percentage of local homes being purchased with cash during December was 40.4 percent, nearly matching November, when cash buyers accounted for 41 percent of all local sales. He added that 60.1 percent of existing home sales in December were bank-owned, down from 61 percent of all sales in November and continuing a decline that began in the latter half of 2009. GLVAR again reported declines in most categories related to the number of homes listed for sale. It reported 8,405 single-family homes listed for sale without any sort of pending or contingent offer and another 1,819 such condos and townhomes. That's similar to November, when there were 8,385 homes and another 1,826 condos and townhomes listed for sale without an offer. (more) GLVAR housing stats - page 2 As for the larger, or gross, number of listings on GLVAR's Multiple Listing Service, GLVAR reported a total of 19,707 homes and 4,576 condos and townhomes listed at the end of November. That's down 5.5 percent from 20,847 homes and down another 4.4 percent from 4,788 condos and townhomes listed on its MLS at the end of November. That total, or gross, inventory of single-family homes listed for sale in December is down 11 percent from 22,144 such listings one year ago. The total number of condos and townhomes listed for sale is down 16.8 percent from 5,501 such listings one year ago. This month's GLVAR statistics include activity through the end of December 2009. GLVAR distributes such statistics each month based on data collected through its Multiple Listing Service, which does not necessarily account for newly constructed homes sold by local builders or for sale by owners. Other highlights reported by GLVAR include: The total number of local single-family homes sold in

December was 3,420, up 9.7 percent from 3,117 in November and up 36.9 percent from 2,498 in December of 2008. The total number of condos and townhomes sold in December was 776, up 6.9 percent from 726 in November and up 70.5 percent from 455 such sales one year ago. The value of local real estate transactions tracked through the MLS during December increased 7.2 percent for the month to nearly $559 million worth of single-family home sales and another 2.8 percent to more than $59 million in condo and townhome sales. That compares to November, when GLVAR reported more than $521 million worth of single-family home sales and nearly $58 million in condo and townhome sales. Compared to one year ago, December's total sales values are up 9.5 percent for homes and up 15.2 percent for condo and townhome properties. Through December, 73.3 percent of all local single-family homes and 74.9 percent of all condos and townhomes sold within 60 days. That's down from November, when 75.3 percent of all local single-family homes and 76.9 percent of all condos and townhomes sold within 60 days. To arrange interviews with GLVAR experts, please call George McCabe at (702) 967-2222. About the GLVAR GLVAR was founded in 1947 and provides its nearly 13,500 local members with education, training and political representation. The local representative of the National Association of REALTORS®, GLVAR is the largest professional organization in Southern Nevada. Each GLVAR member receives the highest level of professional training and must abide by a strict code of ethics. ## ABC NEWS PROGRAMS – First Quarter, 2012

PRIMETIME: WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

When you think no one is watching... what would you do? Called "a Candid Camera of Ethics" by The Columbia Journalism Review, the popular ABC News series Primetime: What Would You Do? returns with all-new scenarios.

Friday, January 20, 2012 (Season Premiere)

- Cover it Up: A person with a very obvious birthmark visits a busy make-up counter and asks for help selecting a new lipstick. The make-up artist instead insists on offering products to cover-up her face. Will other customers say anything?
- Conniving Customers: What will happen when two young men try to scam a restaurant for a free meal by putting a bug in their soup? Will other diners turn them in, and does it matter if the scammers are two young women?
- Kid Driver: Taking a page from recent headlines, "WWYD" sets out to see what will happen when a visibly intoxicated father asks his young son to serve as his designated driver. And what if it's an intoxicated mother and daughter?
- Gay Husband: How will onlookers react when a husband starts kissing a male lover, who had been sitting at the restaurant bar, the minute his wife leaves for the bathroom?

Friday, January 27, 2012

- So You Want to be a Model?: What would you do if you were sitting in a cafe next to two beautiful teen girls when a man approaches them, offering to make them famous? He says he is a photographer, with a studio in his home, and he'd be happy to take their photos. The girls are exuberant at their being "discovered" and squeal with delight as the "photographer" leaves to place a phone call and make all the arrangements. Will anyone advise the giddy girls that it isn't such a good idea?
- Gay Marriage Proposal: Right after a man proposes to his boyfriend at a restaurant, a fellow diner voices his disgust and disapproval. How will onlookers react? Will anyone defend the newly engaged gay couple?
- Doggie Adoption: A couple seems to want to adopt a rescued pit bull from a pet store for all the right reasons - to provide a good home. But as soon as the pet store employee walks away, they let it be overheard by bystanders that their true motive is to use the dog in underground dog fights. Will anyone intervene?
- Laptop Thief : What will happen when someone steals a laptop left on a cafe table by a man who has asked the other cafe patrons to watch it? Will it matter if the laptop's owner is an obnoxious business man?

Friday, February 3, 2012

- Stealing from Homeless: Will anyone intervene when they witness someone stealing from a homeless person sitting on a sidewalk, begging for money? "What Would You Do?" plays out the scenario with the "thief" as a dressed-up businessman, a dressed-down man and a woman.
- Bridezilla/Unhelpful Bridal Consultant: There are shows all over television about it – brides with an insatiable appetite for being the most irrational and mean customer a salesperson could ever have. Will anyone step in when they see a bridezilla in action? And what will happen when the tables are turned and the bridal salesperson is anything but helpful – even downright rude to the customer? Will bystanders intervene?

- Little Emperors/Mom Abuse: What would you do if you saw a young child hitting and verbally abusing mom when the child does not get his/her way? What if it were an older kid threatening to violently take action against his mom, who happens to already have a black eye?

Friday, February 10, 2012

- Baby Monitor Mother: A new mother sits in a bakery looking annoyed. Beside her is a fairly odd accessory – a baby monitor – monitoring a baby from her upstairs apartment. The mom asks other customers to listen because she needs a break from the baby and heads out down the street. Will the customers watch the baby, go after the mother, or call the police? What if the mother seems to be in despair instead of just needing some “time off” – will anyone try to help the mom?
- Vegetarian/Vegan Discrimination: In a restaurant, a mother orders a vegan meal for her child. A couple sitting at the next table tries to convince the mother and child that they need meat/protein. At one point when the mother steps away, the couple tries to get the child to eat bacon. Will anyone step in? Twist: A 12-year-old son begs his mother to eat meat, and she says no. When she steps away, he asks other patrons if he can try their food.
- Cover it Up: A person with a very obvious port wine stain birthmark visits a busy make-up counter and asks for help selecting a new lipstick. The make-up artist instead insists on offering products to cover-up the port wine stain. Will other customers say anything?
- Pray Away the Gay: What would you do if you were at a restaurant and overheard a “therapist” telling a gay teenager that it is possible to change someone’s sexuality simply by “praying it away”?

Friday, February 24, 2012

- Paternity Test: At a restaurant, a young woman reveals to her friend that her baby is not really her boyfriend's baby. When the boyfriend joins them and asks about how his baby is doing, will anyone tell him the truth?
- Smoking Parents: It's a crowded day on a beach boardwalk when people notice a woman, with an infant in a baby carrier, smoking a cigarette. The woman is making no effort to keep the smoke from the baby's face. Will anyone intervene?
- Tattoo Pressure: When a girl has second thoughts about getting a tattoo yet is getting peer pressure from her boyfriend to go forward with it, will anyone else at the tattoo parlor step in?
- Unloving Nanny: Instead of being a loving caretaker, a nanny walking down a busy suburban street belittles the little girls she is watching with derogatory comments. What will bystanders do, if anything?
- No More Free Samples: When a customer over-indulges in free samples at a deli counter, will other patrons alert a store employee?

Friday, March 2, 2012

- When "I Do" Becomes "I Don't": A young, engaged couple are at a diner when the woman confesses to her fiancé that, even though she's told him she's a virgin (something mandated in the Mormon faith before marriage), she actually isn't - and hopes he will still marry her. The fiancé is shocked and tells his soon-to-be-bride that he cannot. Will fellow diners say anything?
- Diner Dispute: Will anyone come to the aid of a woman who shows signs of being both physically and verbally abused by her significant other?

- Dad, I've Got a Secret: Will anyone react to a teen boy who tells his unsympathetic father he is gay?
- Sticky Fingers: Will any bystanders intervene when a woman steals merchandise from a ski store? What if the thief is a former beauty queen?

Friday, March 9, 2012

- Teen Girls Peer Pressure: Will any bystanders defend a teen girl facing peer pressure to lose her virginity?
- Teen Boys Peer Pressure: When two teenage boys discuss drugging their girlfriends to have sex with them, will any bystanders say anything?
- Mom, We Need To Talk: What will happen when a teenage boy tells his disapproving mom that he feels he was born into the wrong body and wants to start living life as a girl? Will anyone in the restaurant come to the boy's defense?

Friday, March 16, 2012

- Devil Wears Prada: Many young women "pay their dues" by taking assistant positions for powerful people who treat them poorly. But when a boss' bad behavior happens in a public place, will anyone come to the aid of the young woman?
- Albinism: Will anyone stand up for a young adult with Albinism who is being tormented by bullies?
- Drop Dead Diva: What will happen when a size 14 woman is rudely told by a sales clerk that the store does not have clothes that large? Will fellow shoppers say anything?
- Buy Me Condoms/Plan B: A teenage boy asks pharmacy customers to buy condoms for him, explaining that the pharmacist behind the counter is a family friend and he's too embarrassed to buy the condoms for himself because of his strict, conservative upbringing. "WWYD" then changes things up with a teenage girl asking customers to buy Plan B for her, under similar circumstances. Will anyone help out the teens?

Friday, March 23, 2012

- Haircut from Hell: Would you tell a stranger sitting next to you at a hair salon that her haircut/color is awful, or lie to boost her self esteem?
- You're Marrying Her?: When a sales clerk at a bridal boutique refuses to sell a bride a dress because she is marrying another woman, will any fellow shoppers intervene?
- Found Cash: You spot a $50 bill on the ground. Would you take it? What if it has a deposit slip with a check for hundreds of dollars attached to it -- and it's been dropped right in front of the bank? Would you return it, deposit it or just put it in your pocket?
- Underage Teens Looking for Alcohol: Will any patrons of a liquor store buy alcohol for three underage teenage boys? What happens when the teens are girls?

Friday, March 30, 2012

- Sexy Tot: Straight from the headlines... what would you do if, at a clothing store, you witnessed a "pageant mom" revealing her young daughter's sexy outfit for an upcoming show?
- My Two Dads: A gay couple bring their kids to a restaurant for a family meal. But when the adults leave the table, the kids are taunted by some teenage boys sitting nearby for having gay fathers. Will any fellow diners intervene?
- You're Walking Home!: What happens when a mother gets fed up with her children's misbehaving in the backseat of the car – fed up to the point of forcing them out after a dispute and telling them to walk home? Will people confront the mother, or will they feel that what is appropriate punishment is better left to the mother, even if she is at the end her rope? (OAD: 5/14/2010)
- Potty-Mouth Child: Kids say the darndest things... When the Lily character on "Modern Family" said the F-word, it stirred controversy on and off the screen. So what would happen when a child speaks profanity at a store – will a bystander say anything?

EXPOSED: JUNKIE SCIENCE

Julian and Tali Wendrow were so desperate to help their autistic daughter, Aislinn, that they tried Facilitated Communication, which turned out to be a discredited technique when used to communicate with autistic people. But after the so-called "miracle cure" seemed to initially open up their daughter's silent world, it opened up a world of trouble: out of nowhere came allegations of unspeakable abuse. Chris Cuomo reports.

DESPERATE TO BE MOMS

How far will some women go to become a mom? In a surprising trend, thousands of women and couples are turning to a bold new option: instead of expensive and invasive sperm banks and fertility clinics, they are getting free sperm on the internet. "20/20" follows several women desperate to have children and willing to turn to this underground universe of online link-ups, meeting men on the internet to exchange this gift of life.

COSTA CONCORDIA TRAGEDY

An unimaginable scene unfolded last Friday night when the luxury cruise ship Costa Concordia, carrying more than 4,000 passengers and crew, struck rocks near Giglio off the coast of Tuscany, Italy and began to sink. With reports from Chris Cuomo in Italy and Elizabeth Vargas and Deborah Roberts from New York, "20/20" gives viewers the most comprehensive updates - including the latest on the investigation into the captain's abandoning ship and the search for survivors, as well as passenger and crew survivor stories ranging from the hopeful to the tragic.

WAR OF THE ROSES

It started with a husband's obsession with the divorce movie "War of the Roses" and then escalated to 12 hours, of terror as he held his soon-to-be ex-wife hostage in their very own home. This divorce Armageddon played out in real time to negotiators and reporters and was all caught on audio tapes, offering sensational insight into the mind of a man out of control and a woman fighting for her life. ABC News Anchor Robin Roberts reports a harrowing story with chilling details.

HOLLYWED

From “I do” to “I don’t” to “what was I thinking?”... In a town where fame can be fleeting, so too can Hollywood love and marriage. From Heidi Klum and Seal to Ashton Kutcher and Demi to Kim Kardashian and Kris Humphries, high profile Hollywood splits have dominated recent entertainment headlines. A special “20/20” reports.

SINS OF THE FATHER

What would drive a man to set his house on fire, murdering his two sons and killing himself – and could it have all been prevented? ABC News Anchor Chris Cuomo takes viewers inside the Powell family tragedy with a report and exclusive details on the events leading up to the tragedy.

THE CUTTING EDGE

Americans are being cut, stretched, tucked, smoothed, tapered, injected and filled to enhance their appearance in record numbers: almost 14 million cosmetic plastic surgeries were performed last year alone, creating a $10 billion a year industry. Anchored by Barbara Walters, she explores the most innovative procedures and the amazing new advances.

HONEYMOON DEATH DIVE

In his first and only interview since an Alabama judge put the troubling case to rest last week, Gabe Watson answers the tough questions from ABC News Anchor Elizabeth Vargas about his marriage, his tragic honeymoon, his strange behavior, what he says really happened during that fateful scuba dive, and how he is handling the fact that Tina’s family believes he got away with murder.

PET CRAZY

From doggie mansions and thousand-dollar canine couture to pet jewelry and pet plastic surgery, "Pet Crazy" explores how and why America's pets are the most overly pampered in the world. Robin Roberts reports.

ANGELS & DEMONS

Will a jury convict Hemy Neuman for the murder of his employee's husband, Rusty Sneiderman, outside of Sneiderman's son's day care center... or will the jury believe Neuman's insanity plea that angels and demons who sounded like Olivia Newton-John and Barry White directed him to kill? Was the alleged love affair between Andrea and Hemy Neuman a fatal attraction, and was it really voices in Neuman's head or a deliberate ambush to kill a love rival? Elizabeth Vargas reports.

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW: Dharun Ravi

Chris Cuomo sits down with former Rutgers University student Dharun Ravi in his first television interview since being found guilty last week of spying on his college roommate, Tyler Clementi. Ravi, faces up to 10 years in state prison after being found guilty of all 15 counts against him, including invasion of privacy and anti-gay intimidation -- a New Jersey state law hate crime.

LOTTO FRENZY

Mega Millions mania... One of the largest jackpots in history -- now estimated at a staggering half a billion dollars – is up for grabs on Friday night. But does winning all of that money really buy happiness? Right before the live lotto drawing at 11:00 p.m. on Friday, 20/20 looks at past lottery winners and losers, as well as the scammers and swindlers who vie for a slice of the winner’s pie. Why do so many lottery winners end up broke? What about the office pool? Can you play the odds to win? Barbara Walters reports.

20/20 SPECIAL EDITION: MY EXTREME AFFLICTION – First Quarter, 2012

This series looks into the lives of people with some of medicine's most amazing and extreme conditions or who have unbelievable abilities. Look back on some favorite reports and brings viewers some new, unimaginable conditions.

Anchored by Elizabeth Vargas:

- Children of Hoarders: There are an estimated six million hoarders in the United States – and while they suffer tremendously from the effects of this mysterious and devastating mental illness – their families also suffer. “20/20” looks at the children of hoarders, who come clean about the shame, resentment and lifelong secrets of growing up in such conditions.
- Crazy for Cats: They are a mysterious breed – women who fill their homes with cats instead of kids. Vargas takes us inside the homes of women whose passion for cats has literally, driven them to extremes.
- Alopecia: Five million Americans suffer from Alopecia- a condition with sudden and unpredictable hair loss. Georgia was a professional hair model who has had to suffer this condition. “20/20” follows Georgia on a very personal journey to redefine beauty.

Anchored by Barbara Walters:

- Seven... going on 70: What happens to a family when a child’s birth becomes a medical mystery? Barbara Walters reports on Kaylee Halko and Lindsay Ratcliffe, two vibrant young girls who suffer from a rapid aging disease called progeria, The disease causes children to age at 10 times the normal rate. It is incredibly rare, Barbara interviews one of the oldest surviving children with progeria and explores the secrets of aging that her body may reveal.

Saturday, March 17, 2012

- Twisted Cheerleader: Washington Redskins Cheerleader Ambassador Desiree Jennings, 25, had everything going for her until one day when her body suddenly stopped working, turning into a twisted, jerky mess. Her journey for answers to this mystery takes her to a controversial osteopath in North Carolina and has led people questioning whether or not her affliction is real. Jim Avila reports.
- Kids Too Nice to Be Normal: Williams Syndrome is a rare genetic condition -- so rare, in fact, that few people have ever heard of it. But that one, should you ever meet him or her, will likely have a personality of unforgettable ebullience and warmth. Chris Cuomo attended a camp for children with Williams, and was besieged not by formal handshakes, but by hugs and slaps on the back and a barrage of questions. 20/20 follows researchers, children and their families in their quest to make sense of this medical condition.
- Mega-Brain: Daniel Tammet seems unremarkable, but behind his bookish exterior lies a superhuman gift, one of the most extraordinary brains man has ever seen. Tammet is a mathematical genius, capable of astronomical calculations instantly. He says he was born with the ability to experience numbers in an exceptionally vivid way, and is also a gifted linguist, speaking 9 languages. Yet because of his Asperger’s diagnosis, he cannot drive a car. Nick Watt reports.
- Tourettes: Tourette Syndrome, is a neuro-biological disorder that is characterized by a range of symptoms ranging from painful self abuse and rage episodes to bizarre vocalizations like barking, meowing or even vulgar and profane language. The children are helpless to control the embarrassing behavior.
